

IL BOSCO

IL Bosco project is the new administrative capital of the most powerful residential projects in Egypt that have been launched and completed.

The well-known Egyptian company, Italy, which has a precedent for the multi-village of Kai Sokhna, the village of Mousa Coast, Bras Sidr, and Compound Lanova Vista at the 5th assembly and the Italian Compound in October

The new administrative capital of IL BOSCO will be built on 200 acres divided into residential units, apartments, two houses, independent villas and other high quality recreational areas.

IL BOSCO's New Administrative District is a very new location in new Cairo, minutes from the Academic City, the Presidential Palace, the Conference Center and the airport.

Property Type