

IL Monte Galala

IL Monte Galala - Sokhna spans over 2.2 million m² making it one of the largest resorts in Ain Sokhna . Situated at the heart of the Galala Mountain range, the resort spans across 1.3 km of soothing shoreline running across the Red Sea's magical coastline to boast unrivalled views. Often referred to as "Cairo's beach" for its proximity, "Ain El Sokhna" literally translates to hot springs, extending over 60 km on the Red Sea coast from Al- Adbia in the north and Zaafarana in the south. Its red mountainous range rich with minerals has inspired mariners to give the area its current name, setting it as top holiday destination for safari lovers and mountain climbers alike.
